

PRESENTER

Austin Powell, Crown Law, Wellington

Austin is a Senior Crown Counsel in the Constitutional and Human Rights team at Crown Law. As part of a varied public law practice with an emphasis on human rights, extradition and international law he has argued numerous cases on the Bill of Rights Act 1990 for the Crown.

The statements and conclusions contained in this paper are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This booklet has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course. It is not intended to be a comprehensive statement of the law or practice, and should not be relied upon as such. If advice on the law is required, it should be sought on a formal, professional basis.
