

PRESENTERS

William Akel, Simpson Grierson, Auckland, Wellington and Christchurch

William is the senior litigation partner at Simpson Grierson. He has acted for TVNZ News & Current Affairs for many years. He has appeared in many high profile privacy cases including Hosking (in the High Court), Andrews v TVNZ, Rogers v TVNZ, and Mafart and Prieur v TVNZ. He has represented media in such well known cases as Liddell, Re Victim X, Mahanga, Travis Burns, and Television New Zealand Ltd v R (Bain suppression).

Steven Price, Barrister, Wellington

Steven is a barrister specialising in media law, and the author of Media Minefield, a guidebook to media regulation in NZ. He also lectures in the topic at Victoria University of Wellington, and contributes freelance articles and commentaries widely. He writes a blog called MediaLawJournal in which he discusses issues of media law and ethics.

Robert Stewart, Izard Weston, Wellington

Robert has been a partner of Izard Weston since 1998 and now heads up the firm's media law team. He is the principal external legal adviser to Fairfax Media. Although his principal areas of practice are now media law and litigation, he also has extensive experience in the areas of maritime law, summary prosecutions and company and commercial litigation.

The statements and conclusions contained in this booklet are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This booklet has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course. It is not intended to be a comprehensive statement of the law or practice, and should not be relied upon as such. If advice on the law is required, it should be sought on a formal, professional basis.
