

AUTHORS

Garry Collin, Barrister, Christchurch

Garry is a family law barrister based in Christchurch. Most of his work involves children's issues and a significant part of his practice is acting as lawyer for children. Garry completed a post-graduate Diploma in Child Advocacy in 2005. He is on the Board of Trustees of Shirley Boys High and is on the Executive Committee of the Family Law Section.

Her Hon Judge Jackie Moran, Christchurch

Judge Jackie Moran was appointed to the Family and District Courts in September 2003 and sits in Christchurch. She graduated from Auckland University in 1980 and moved to Wanganui where she was a partner in Armstrong Barton and practised in the fields of criminal and family law. In 1990 she moved to Invercargill where she specialised in family law until the time of her appointment to the Bench. Judge Moran is the Administrative Family Court Judge for the Southern Region.

Her Hon Judge Mary O'Dwyer, Dunedin

Judge Mary O'Dwyer was appointed to the Family, District and Youth Courts in November 2002 and sits in Dunedin. She graduated from Birmingham University, England with LLB Honours, and is a barrister, of Gray's Inn, London. She practised as a barrister for 15 years in London and throughout the United Kingdom, specialising in criminal and family law. From 1993 she practised in Christchurch as a partner in Cunningham Taylor. She has served on several NZLS committees and on the Family Law Section Executive in 2001. She has a keen interest in raising standards of advocacy in the Family Court.

Jason Wren, Duncan Cotterill, Christchurch

Jason has practised exclusively in family law for over 15 years. He has been actively involved in the Early Intervention Process in Christchurch from the outset in his varied roles as counsel for a parent, lawyer for child and regularly as a mediator in that integral part of the process. In his view if the Early Intervention Process is properly prepared for at all levels by counsel and the parties, it does offer a productive and prompt resolution of disputes in the Family Court.
