

PRESENTERS

Andrew Petersen, Bell Gully, Auckland

Andrew's experience includes advising on real estate and business acquisitions and divestments, leasing, project developments and finance, construction, joint ventures and shareholder arrangements, and property restructuring and insolvency. his experience covers all areas of property, including office, retail, industrial, hotels, apartments, residential, golf course developments, land subdivisions, farming, forestry and vineyards.

Glenn Shewan, Bell Gully, Auckland

Glenn is a specialist competition, regulatory and overseas investment lawyer. He has advised on a number of OIO applications, drawing on his competition law and economics background to assist clients in navigating the increasingly complex overseas investment regime.

CONTENTS

PRACTICAL AND HANDY TIPS FOR DRAFTING “SENSITIVE LAND” APPLICATIONS UNDER THE OVERSEAS INVESTMENT ACT 2005	1
INTRODUCTION	1
WHAT DOES THE OVERSEAS INVESTMENT ACT 2005 COVER?	1
Overview	1
Significant business assets	2
Sensitive land	4
Fishing quota	4
Associates	5
PREPARING AN APPLICATION	6
Form of application	6
Content of application	6
VENDOR INFORMATION FORM	7
WHAT ARE THE “BENEFIT TO NEW ZEALAND FACTORS” AND HOW SHOULD THEY BE ADDRESSED IN AN APPLICATION?	7
Introduction	7
Benefit factors	8
Claiming benefit factors	9
WHAT IS THE COUNTERFACTUAL AND HOW DO YOU DETERMINE IT?	11
The counterfactual test	11
Determining the correct counterfactual	11
NON-URBAN LAND AND THE “SUBSTANTIAL AND IDENTIFIABLE” TEST	12
ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS FOR FARM LAND AND SPECIAL LAND	13
Special land	13
Farm land	14
A BRIEF OVERVIEW OF THE APPLICATION PROCESS	14
Step 1: Quality assurance (QA) check	14
Step 2: Application assessment	15
Step 3: Statutory declarations	15
Step 4: Draft conditions of consent	16
Step 5: Recommendations and decision	17
PROCESSING TIMEFRAMES	18
FURTHER INFORMATION.....	18