

PRESENTER

Alan Gluestein, Wyndham Chambers, Auckland

Alan has specialised in family law for many years with a special interest in elder law. He has had an extensive involvement in proceedings under the Protection of Personal Rights Act since the Act came into force both as Counsel appointed by the Court to represent subject persons and also as Counsel for applicants and other parties.

The statements and conclusions contained in this paper are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This booklet has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course. It is not intended to be a comprehensive statement of the law or practice, and should not be relied upon as such. If advice on the law is required, it should be sought on a formal, professional basis.
