

PRESENTERS

John Greenwood, Partner, Greenwood Roche Chisnall, Wellington

John is editor of the New Zealand Property Lawyer. He has presented a range of seminars on topics such as the Building Act; Retirement Villages legislation and Securities Act impact on property structures. John has been passionate for many years on a new way forward concerning standard sale agreements or preferably a statutory code on terms and conditions in New Zealand. He is also adviser to the Office of Senior Citizens on a draft Code of Practice on equity/reverse mortgages.

Tim Jones, Partner, Glaister Ennor, Auckland

The focus of Tim's practice is residential and commercial property work. He also has considerable experience in land transactions and building developments. Tim is convener of the NZLS / PLS Land Titles Committee on the Landonline LINZ project, and was formerly a member of both the ADLS Property & Business Law Committee, the NZLS CLE Board and ADLS Forms Committee, and is currently a council member of the NZLS Auckland branch.

Acknowledgment

The NZLS wish to thank the REINZ for kindly allowing the Society to include copies of: the REINZ Agreement for Buying and Selling Real Estate, the REINZ Agreement for Buying and Selling Real Estate by Auction, the REINZ Agreement for Buying and Selling Real Estate by Tender, the REINZ Book of Standard Clauses (Section B), and the REINZ draft Information for Buyers and Sellers in the appendices of this booklet. These forms are provided solely for the purpose of conducting the NZLS seminar and are not to be used for any other purpose.

The statements and conclusions contained in this booklet are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This booklet has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course. It is not intended to be a comprehensive statement of the law or practice, and should not be relied upon as such. If advice on the law is required, it should be sought on a formal, professional basis.
