

PRESENTERS

Michelle Burke, Partner, Anthony Harper, Auckland

Michelle practises as a partner at Anthony Harper Lawyers and is head of the team providing specialist legal advice in the areas of aged care and retirement villages. She has worked for many years with retirement village operators, intending and existing residents and statutory supervisors and has an excellent understanding of the key issues and concerns of intending residents.

Elizabeth Rowe, Senior Associate, MinterEllisonRuddWatts, Auckland

Liz is a corporate lawyer who has provided advice in the retirement village sector since the introduction of the Retirement Villages Act 2003. With a keen interest in issues impacting on the sector, she regularly advises retirement village operators (on matters ranging from compliance with retirement village law to the sale and purchase of villages), statutory supervisors (in their role as village supervisors), and on existing and intending residents rights and interests.
