Sarah Kelly, Associate, Dentons Kensington Swan, Auckland

Sarah is an associate in the private wealth team at Dentons Kensington Swan. She specialises in asset and estate planning, trusts, immigration by investment, relationship property agreements, estate administration, trust governance and compliance, as well as general corporate and commercial matters.

Sarah's expertise includes advising domestic and international high net worth individuals in relation to asset and estate planning, wills, relationship property agreements, trusts, family offences, and the law, administration, governance and compliance obligations. She regularly advises New Zealand families, foreign investors, new migrants, legal and accounting firms, executors and trustees, professional trustee companies, financial institutions and family offices.

Silvia McPherson, Senior Associate, Dentons Kensington Swan, Auckland

Silvia is a senior associate in New Zealand's private wealth team. She specialises in asset protection, business succession planning, trust and charity law. Silvia's clients are mostly private individuals and trustees with varied and often complex needs.

She has significant international experience gained in the UK market where she provided a range of trusts, private client, tax and charity law advice to high net worth individuals, trustees of private, statutory and commercial trusts, financial institutions and charities. Silvia also advised corporate clients with transactions where trusts were an integral part of structuring proposals. She draws on this expertise to provide commercially sound and sensible solutions to her clients.
