

Sentencing – the new dimensions

INTRODUCTION - His Honour Judge FWM (Fred) McElrea and Jonathan Eaton	1
1. RESTORATIVE JUSTICE – AN EXPLANATION	3
Definitions of restorative justice	3
The values that underlie restorative justice	4
What restorative justice is not ...	4
Restorative justice is not primarily about forgiveness or reconciliation	4
Restorative justice is not mediation	4
Restorative justice is not primarily designed to reduce recidivism (repeat offending)	4
Restorative justice is not a particular programme or a blueprint	5
Restorative justice is not primarily intended for comparatively minor offences or for first-time offenders	5
Restorative justice is not a new or North American (or New Zealand) development	5
Restorative justice is neither a panacea nor a replacement for the legal system	6
Restorative justice is not necessarily an alternative to prison	6
Restorative justice is not necessarily the opposite of retribution	7
Restorative justice is not a "soft option"	7
Restorative justice is not community justice	8
The wider context	8
Perceived inadequacies of the traditional approach to sentencing	9
A legal mind shift is needed	10
Sentencing Act	10
Victims' Rights Act	10
Vindication of the victim	10
And so ...	12
An example of the way in which a restorative conference can assist a court in sentencing	13
Issues of fairness	13
2. PURPOSES AND PRINCIPLES OF SENTENCING - His Honour Judge FWM (Fred) McElrea	17
Whether punishment remains a purpose of sentencing	17
The meaning of the three new purposes	18
Principles of sentencing	19
What is not new?	19
What is new?	20
3. THE COURT'S PROCEDURES FOR DEALING WITH RESTORATIVE JUSTICE CASES - His Honour Judge FWM (Fred) McElrea	21
4. TAKING INTO ACCOUNT OFFERS OR AGREEMENTS TO MAKE AMENDS - His Honour Judge FWM (Fred) McElrea	23

History of the section	24
Scope of matters to be considered	24
Genuineness and realism of the offer	25
Alternatives to sentencing	25
5. OTHERWISE DEALING WITH OFFENDERS - His Honour Judge FWM (Fred) McElrea	27
Meaning of the term	27
Examples of its use	27
Obligation to consider avoidance of sentencing	27
Section 11	27
Is a sentence necessary?	28
A presumption? or an implication?	28
Withdrawal of informations	28
Discharges, with or without conviction	28
Orders to come up for sentence if called on	28
Comparison with adjournment for sentencing	28
Monitoring of agreements	29
The court's residual powers	29
In summary ...	30
6. INCORPORATION OF RESTORATIVE JUSTICE OUTCOMES IN FORMAL SENTENCES - His Honour Judge FWM (Fred) McElrea	31
Fines and reparation	31
Supervision	31
Community work	32
Imprisonment	32
7. COUNSEL'S ROLE IN RESTORATIVE JUSTICE CASES - His Honour Judge FWM (Fred) McElrea	33
Raising the issue with clients	33
Advising on plea	33
Obtaining an adjournment	33
Attendance at restorative conferences	34
Making submissions on sentence	34
8. THE DISTRICT COURTS PILOT SCHEME FOR RESTORATIVE JUSTICE - His Honour Judge FWM (Fred) McElrea	35
Broad outline	35
Suitability of the defendant	35
Attitude of victim	35
Reports and monitoring	35
9. VICTIMS' RIGHTS ACT 2002 - Jonathan Eaton	37
The purpose	37
Definition of "victim"	38
Treatment of victims	40

Obligation to encourage meetings between a victim and an offender	40
Information to be given to victims	42
Privacy of victims	42
Victim impact statements	43
Verification of information ascertained	43
Prosecutor's discretion to treat disadvantaged person as victim	43
Offender not to be given statement to keep	44
Defence counsel not be shown any part of statement	44
Directions or conditions on other disclosure or other distribution of statements	46
Victim's views on offender permanent name suppression	46
Further particular rights for victims of certain offences	46
Victim's views about release on bail	47
Victims' complaints procedure	47
10. HOME DETENTION - Jonathan Eaton	49
Definition	49
Purpose	49
Front end home detention	50
Reasons for refusing leave	51
Restorative justice and home detention	51
Deferral of home detention (s 100 Sentencing Act 2002)	52
Disclosure of criminal history to occupants of the proposed residence	52
Back end home detention	53
End of home detention	53
A growth industry	54
11. RELEASE FROM A DETERMINATE SENTENCE OF IMPRISONMENT – THE ROLE OF THE SENTENCING COURT / THE PAROLE BOARD - Jonathan Eaton	55
The Parole Act – an overview	55
The presumption in favour of parole at one-third	56
The jurisdiction of a sentencing court as to the release from a determinate sentence of imprisonment	56
Sentencing court / Parole Board – the roles overlap	57
Anomalies under the Parole Act	57
Traditional approach of the sentencing court	58
Exceptions to the traditional approach	59
Parole provision might undermine proper discounts	60
A recent decision - R v Brown	61
Summary	61
12. MINIMUM PERIODS OF IMPRISONMENT (SECTION 86 SENTENCING ACT) - Jonathan Eaton	63
The range of minimum period that can be imposed	63
The old minimum period provision - s 80(4) Criminal Justice Act	63
Section 86 not to apply retrospectively unless serious violent offence	64

The purpose of s 86	64
R v Brown – the leading authority	65
The statutory test	66
The proper approach – a two-stage process	66
"Sufficiently serious"	67
Determining the minimum period to be imposed	68
R v G – an overview of Brown's case	70
Offences more likely caught by s 86	71
Drug offences	72
Dishonesty offences	73
Right of appeal	73
Reasons for s 86 order	73
Parole Board bound by s 86 order	74
Minimum period of imprisonment imposed – recent cases:	74
Minimum period of imprisonment declined – recent cases:	76
APPENDIX 1 - RESTORATIVE JUSTICE	79
A guide to the legislative provisions	79
Sentencing Act:	79
Parole Act	80
Victims' Rights Act 2002	80
APPENDIX 2 – COURT-REFERRED RESTORATIVE JUSTICE	81
Further information concerning the pilot scheme operating in four district courts	81
Court-referred restorative justice	81
APPENDIX 3 – COURT-REFERRED RESTORATIVE JUSTICE PILOT – OFFENCES	85
Court-referred restorative justice pilot - offences	85
APPENDIX 4 – RESTORATIVE JUSTICE PROVIDERS (September 2002)	89
APPENDIX 5 – VICTIMS' RIGHTS ACT 2002	91