

PRESENTER

Karen Clark QC, Barrister, Wellington

Karen specialises in judicial review and civil and commercial litigation advising and representing both private and public sector clients. She has a particular expertise, and interest, in the interpretation and operation of statute law. A former Deputy Solicitor-General, Karen was appointed Queen's Counsel in 2007 when she joined the independent bar.

The statements and conclusions contained in this paper are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This booklet has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course. It is not intended to be a comprehensive statement of the law or practice, and should not be relied upon as such. If advice on the law is required, it should be sought on a formal, professional basis.
