

PRESENTER

Marina Matthews, Chen Palmer, Auckland

Marina is a partner specialising in education and public policy. She has advised schools on statutory, regulatory and funding requirements issues. Marina has advised schools on implementation of government policies, including national standards. She has advised principals and Boards of Trustees at state and integrated schools on statutory interventions, including commissioners and statutory managers. Marina has over 12 years' experience providing advice in the education sector. She has previously worked for the Tertiary Education Commission and was Private Secretary to four Crown Ministers of Education. four Crown Ministers of Education.

CONTENTS

STATUTORY INTERVENTIONS FOR STATE AND STATE INTEGRATED SCHOOLS	1
INTRODUCTION	1
LEGAL FRAMEWORK FOR STATUTORY INTERVENTIONS FOR NEW ZEALAND STATE AND STATE INTEGRATED SCHOOLS	1
When can statutory intervention be initiated	2
Limited Statutory Managers	2
Commissioner	3
Specialist Help	3
Kura Kaupapa Maori	3
Integrated Schools	3
ISSUES TO CONSIDER THROUGHOUT THE STATUTORY INTERVENTION PROCESS	4
Informal and formal support prior to statutory intervention	4
Scoping meeting regarding statutory intervention	4
Statutory Intervention	5
Reporting and monitoring of statutory intervention	6
Review of and exit from statutory intervention	6
REVIEW OF STATUTORY INTERVENTIONS IN STATE AND STATE INTEGRATED SCHOOLS	7
SOME ISSUES REGARDING STATUTORY INTERVENTIONS.....	7
Funding Statutory Interventions	7
Training of Boards and Appointees	8