

PRESENTERS

His Hon Judge Philip Recordon, District Court, Manukau

Judge Recordon practiced as a lawyer in his hometown of Auckland for 30 years prior to his appointment in 2003 to the District Court at Waitakere and then Manukau. His interest in disabilities, substances and related law developed whilst a teenager. Community-minded and sensitive parents triggered what became a passion.

Jerome Webby, Manukau District Court, Auckland

Jerome qualified with a BA/LLB (honours) from the University of Auckland in 2013. Since qualifying, he has gained experience in family law and worked as a Judges' Clerk.

CONTENTS

SUBSTANCE ADDICTION (COMPULSORY ASSESSMENT AND TREATMENT) ACT 2017 .....	1
INTRODUCTION .....	1
HOW SA(CAT) WORKS.....	2
Criteria .....	3
Application .....	7
Assessment .....	7
Treatment .....	7
Review .....	8
District inspectors .....	9
Enforcement .....	10
Offences .....	10
CONSISTENCY WITH THE NEW ZEALAND BILL OF RIGHTS ACT 1990.....	10
Human rights framework .....	10
Justified limitations .....	11
Safeguards .....	12
AUSTRALIA .....	13
CONCLUSION .....	14