

PRESENTER

Andrew Ryan, MinterEllisonRuddWatts, Auckland

Andrew is a tax partner with particular expertise in corporate taxation, trusts, tax disputes and cross-border taxation. He advises on the information collection and reporting requirements of FATCA and CRS.

CONTENTS

|                                                                        |          |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------|
| THE COMMON REPORTING STANDARD – WHAT LAWYERS NEED TO KNOW ..... | 1 |
| INTRODUCTION .....                                                     | 1        |
| A NEW ERA FOR TAX REPORTING.....                                       | 2        |
| FATCA: The game-changer .....                                   | 2        |
| The AEOI revolution .....                                       | 2        |
| THE MECHANICS OF AEOI .....                                            | 3        |
| Foundational documents .....                                    | 3        |
| AEOI IN NEW ZEALAND .....                                              | 4        |
| New Zealand implementation .....                                | 4        |
| The New Zealand CRS .....                                       | 5        |
| The wider approach .....                                        | 6        |
| Inland Revenue’s role and enforcement .....                     | 7        |
| KEY CONCEPTS .....                                                     | 9        |
| Who is a Financial Institution? .....                           | 9        |
| Financial institution compliance .....                          | 11       |
| Non-financial entities (NFEs) .....                             | 14       |
| Account holder compliance .....                                 | 15       |
| Self-certifications .....                                       | 15       |
| ADVISING TRUSTS .....                                                  | 16       |
| Trusts as financial institutions .....                          | 17       |
| SOLICITORS’ TRUST ACCOUNTS.....                                        | 22       |
| CRS classification .....                                        | 22       |
| CONCLUDING REMARKS AND PRACTICAL RECOMMENDATIONS.....                  | 27       |