

PRESENTER

Theo Baker, Health and Disability Commissioner, Auckland

Theo has held position of Deputy Commissioner (Complaints Resolution) since 2011. She first joined the litigation team at HDC in 2000 after ten years' experience as a lawyer in private practice. From 2004 to 2009, Theo held the statutory role of Director of Proceedings a HDC, combining regulatory prosecution and civil litigation with management functions. She is a contributor to the legal publication, The Essentials of Elder Law, and has also written on the role of New Zealand's Human Rights Review Tribunal in upholding the rights of health or disability services consumers.

The statements and conclusions contained in this paper are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This booklet has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course. It is not intended to be a comprehensive statement of the law or practice, and should not be relied upon as such. If advice on the law is required, it should be sought on a formal, professional basis.
