

PRESENTER

Associate Professor Jessica Palmer, University of Otago, Dunedin

Jessica is a contributing author of three leading textbooks in New Zealand on Equity and Trusts, Civil Remedies, and Consumer Law. She was a member of the reference group assisting the New Zealand Law Commission in its Review of the Law of Trusts and much of her recent writing has been directed to the problematic relationship between trusts and matrimonial property.

The statements and conclusions contained in this paper are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This booklet has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course. It is not intended to be a comprehensive statement of the law or practice, and should not be relied upon as such. If advice on the law is required, it should be sought on a formal, professional basis.
