

The Law of Unjust Enrichment in New Zealand

PREFACE	1
CHAPTER 1 – THE GENERAL THEORY
Introduction	3
What is restitution?	3
The principle of unjust enrichment	4
The dominant model	4
The Canadian approach	5
Coherence of the subject	6
Reconceptualisation	7
The conceptual dimension	7
Terminology	8
Unjust and restorable	8
Enrichment	9
Restitution and disgorgement	12
At the plaintiff's expense	12
The underlying policy	13
CHAPTER 2 – THE INTERFACE WITH PROPERTY
Introduction	15
A brief critique of Birks' view	16
A better structural understanding	17
CHAPTER 3 – THE INTERFACE WITH EXPECTATIONS
Introduction	21
Failure of consideration or basis	21
Failure of basis in a contractual context	22
When does the basis fail?	23
The requirement of a total failure of basis	23
The relevance of the contract	26
Restoration of non-money enrichments	27
CHAPTER 4 – THE INTERFACE WITH WRONGS
Introduction	31
Restitution and restorable enrichment	31
Central issues	33
Compensation – the natural remedy for a wrong?	33
When is disgorgement appropriate?	34
Is disgorgement a general principle?	35
Quantification of disgorgement	37
APPENDIX ONE – UNDERSTANDING THE REALM OF PRIVATE LAW	39

