

PRESENTER

Professor John Burrows, School of Law, University of Canterbury

Professor Burrows has been a professor of law at the University of Canterbury since 1974. He was Dean of the Faculty from 1980 to 1986, and Deputy Vice-Chancellor of the university from 1999 – 2000.

His main interests are media law, statute law and the law of contract. He has written or co-written Media Law in New Zealand, Statute Law in New Zealand and Law of Contract in New Zealand. He also contributes to Lexis Nexis Commercial Law and Todd's The Law of Torts in New Zealand.

This will be the fourth Update on Contract seminar Professor Burrows has presented for the NZLS. The others were in 1985, 1991 and 1999. He also presented, for the NZLS, Statutory Interpretation with John Fogarty QC in 2001, and Media Law with Bill Wilson QC in 2003.

CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION.....	1
1. FORMATION OF CONTRACT .....	3
Intention to be bound.....	3
Consideration .....	6
Process contracts.....	8
Electronic transactions.....	12
2. THE CONTENT OF THE CONTRACT .....	13
Interpretation.....	13
Implied terms.....	19
Good faith .....	21
3. VITIATING FACTORS.....	27
Undue influence.....	27
Duress .....	32
The Contractual Remedies Act 1979 .....	33
4. LONG TERM CONTRACTS.....	41