

PRESENTERS

Bruno Bordignon, Duncan Cotterill, Wellington

Bruno specialises in commercial and property law – with a specific focus on high density unit titled developments. He participates on the NZLS Unit Titles Committee, which has made submissions on the Unit Titles Act 2010 at every stage.

David Chapman, Registrar-General of Land, Auckland

Prior to taking up his current position in 2004 David held the positions of District Land Registrar for Taranaki, Napier and Auckland. He was at the forefront of the introduction of Landonline to the Auckland region, and has made numerous presentations on a variety of land transfer subjects for the NZLS and the ADLS.

Thomas Gibbons, McCaw Lewis Ltd, Hamilton

Thomas specialises in property and commercial law. His property work includes subdivisions, transactions and opinions, with a special interest in unit titles. He is a contributor to Land Law in New Zealand (LexisNexis), and has written extensively on land law topics for various publications.

John Greenwood, Greenwood Roche Chisnall, Wellington

John is editor of the New Zealand Property Lawyer and a moderator for the New Zealand Council of Legal Education for the land law and equity university papers. He was a member of the Property Law Section Committee that made submissions on the Unit Titles Bill, and since the early 1980's has had a strong involvement in Unit Titles reform in New Zealand.

Tim Jones, Glaister Ennor, Auckland

Tim has many years' experience advising clients in residential and commercial property transactions. This includes major land development projects throughout New Zealand. He is sole convener of the Land Titles System Technical Committee, and a past executive of the NZLS Property Law Section.

Warren Moyes, Registrar-General of Land, Wellington

Warren has worked with LINZ since its creation and prior to that held various positions in Land and Deeds, Department of Justice including District Land Registrar, Wellington. He has been an occasional contributor to various property law publications.
