Dr Duncan Webb, Partner Lane Neave, Christchurch

Duncan is a partner at Lane Neave in Christchurch and has practised law since 1989. He has taught in law schools in the United States and New Zealand and has a distinguished career as a former professor of law. Between 2008 and 2010 Duncan held a quasi-judicial appointment within the Ministry of Justice as Legal Complaints Review Officer. He was also closely involved in the preparation of the new Rules of Professional Conduct and Client Care. He has presented numerous papers and seminars on professional conduct and practice and is the author of the authoritative text in the area Ethics Professional Responsibility and the Lawyer.

The statements and conclusions contained in this booklet are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This booklet has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course. It is not intended to be a comprehensive statement of the law or practice, and should not be relied upon as such. If advice on the law is required, it should be sought on a formal, professional basis.
