

PRESENTERS

Liam Mason, FMA, Wellington

Liam leads FMA's legal team and provides in-house counsel and independent advice to the FMA Board. He was General Counsel to the Securities Commission from 2002 until 2011, when he was seconded to the New Zealand Ministry of Economic Development (now the Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment) to provide expert advice on the Government's review of New Zealand's securities law. Liam has extensive experience in securities law and corporate governance matters, advising Board members and staff on securities and financial services law and policy, Crown entity governance and legal compliance.

Roger Wallis, Chapman Tripp, Auckland

Roger is a partner in Chapman Tripp's Auckland office, specialising in mergers & acquisitions, company and securities law with a focus on listed markets. He is also a member of the Takeovers Panel. Roger has been actively involved with corporate and securities law reform proposals over a number of years, working closely with government officials and regulators, and providing expert comments. He has been with Chapman Tripp since 1993, and was made a partner in 2000. Roger has a BCom/LLB(Hons) from the University of Auckland, and majored in corporate finance.
