

PRESENTERS

Michelle Burke, Anthony Harper, Auckland

Michelle is a partner of Anthony Harper who have recently merged with Burke Melrose. She specialises in the law relating to retirement villages and aged care and has acted extensively for a wide cross section of retirement village operators and statutory supervisors. Michelle has presented seminars and education workshops on retirement village law and elder law for both the legal profession and industry associations.

John Greenwood, Greenwood Roche Chisnall, Wellington

John is editor of the “New Zealand Property Lawyer” and assisted the Government with the policy papers leading up to the Retirement Villages legislation. John assisted with presenting the 2004 and 2007 NZLS CLE seminars on Retirement Villages. He also advises the Retirement Commissioner, who is responsible, under the Retirement Villages Act 2003, for monitoring the effect of the Retirement Villages legislation.

The statements and conclusions contained in this booklet are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This booklet has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course. It is not intended to be a comprehensive statement of the law or practice, and should not be relied upon as such. If advice on the law is required, it should be sought on a formal, professional basis.
