

PRESENTERS

Bridget Smith, SBM Legal, Auckland

Bridget is a partner of SBM Legal and advises on a full range of employment law issues for both employers and employees alike. She has broad advocacy experience having appeared in the District and High courts, the Court of Appeal, the Royal Commission on the Pike River Coal Mine tragedy, as well as making regular appearances in the specialist employment jurisdiction. Bridget's strengths include her commitment to understanding the issues faced by her clients and the impact on their businesses or on them personally.

Andrea Twaddle, Davidson Twaddle Isaac Lawyers, Hamilton

Andrea is a director of DTI Lawyers and an employment law specialist. She represents both employer and employee clients. Andrea is an experienced advocate within the employment jurisdiction. She has a reputation for providing pragmatic, commercially focused advice, and is called upon as a regular commentator and presenter to industry and professional groups regarding topical employment law issues. Andrea's advisory and advocacy work includes resolving workplace disputes, restructuring disciplinary investigations, breaches of confidentiality, and restraints of trade, tailoring contractual and policy documentation and managing health and safety matters.

The statements and conclusions contained in this booklet are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This booklet has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course. It is not intended to be a comprehensive statement of the law or practice, and should not be relied upon as such. If advice on the law is required, it should be sought on a formal, professional basis.
