

PRESENTERS

Samantha Aldridge, Inland Revenue, Wellington

Samantha is a senior policy advisor at Inland Revenue. She has been involved in the policy development of a range of tax-related legislation. Samantha received a LLB/BA(Hons) from Victoria University in 2004 and an LLM(Hons) from the University of Auckland in 2011.

Richard Cross, Willis Toomey Robinson Scannell Hardy, Napier

Richard has been in this role since 1994 and has an extensive legal background including his former role as the District Land Registrar and Government Solicitor. He gained his LLB from University of Auckland in 1978. Richard's guiding principle is "I strive to keep my clients out of court by resolving questions and disputes".

Robbie Muir, Land Information New Zealand, Wellington

Robbie has extensive experience as a solicitor in the area of land title registration. He was appointed to the position of Registrar-General of Land for New Zealand in 2000. Robbie was involved in the development of Landonline and related legislative reforms to enable electronic registration. He is also a contributor to property law publications and has presented at various seminars and conferences on conveyancing and title registration over the years.

The statements and conclusions contained in this booklet are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This booklet has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course. It is not intended to be a comprehensive statement of the law or practice, and should not be relied upon as such. If advice on the law is required, it should be sought on a formal, professional basis.
