

PRESENTER

Hilary Bryan, Director, The Training Practice, Wellington

Hilary Bryan has studied communication for over 20 years and is a Fellow of Speech New Zealand. She has developed and facilitated numerous communication programmes to develop greater self-awareness and connect with others. Hilary has a lively and engaging style. She brings a real-world approach, backed up with theory and experience.

The statements and conclusions contained in this booklet are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This booklet has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course. It is not intended to be a comprehensive statement of the law or practice, and should not be relied upon as such. If advice on the law is required, it should be sought on a formal, professional basis.

Cover and text stocks used in this publication are from Forestry Stewardship Council certified mills, manufactured under the environmentally responsible paper manufactured environmental management system ISO 14001, using pulp from well managed forests and other controlled sources.

Contents

Learning objectives	2
Before the webinar	3
Preparing to communicate: your social presence	4
Preparing to communicate: Transactional Analysis	5
Preparing to communicate: the conversations you plan to hold	8
Connecting with others: it's all about emotions.....	9
Connecting with others: five steps to build rapport and tune into another person	11
Connecting with others: SCARF	14
Engaging in dialogue: the messages people receive.....	15
Engaging in dialogue: detecting icebergs	16
Engaging in dialogue: questions, questions, and more questions	18
Your listening position	21
Bibliography	23