Bianca Mueller, LawDownUnder, Wellington

Bianca advises international and national next generation businesses on international commercial transactions. Her dual accreditation as New Zealand and German lawyer enables her to provide legal advice through a global lens. Bianca has a knack for techie, digital, and creative stuff. Bianca has co-authored several legal textbooks and regularly publishes in legal journals on a variety of topics including information technology, intellectual property, and international law issues. Bianca is an Associate of the Arbitrators and Mediators Institute of New Zealand.

Ron Pol, amlAssurance, Wellington

With more than 25 years' experience as a lawyer, legal consultant, writer and speaker in New Zealand and overseas, Ron is one of New Zealand's leading contributors to public discourse in this area, combining critical-thinking with evidence-based practical application; for better outcomes. Ron previously directed Telecom's major litigation, led New Zealand's corporate lawyers' association, and was appointed to NZLS Council. His doctoral thesis identified how lawyers, accountants and real estate agents are used to facilitate criminal transactions in New Zealand. It identified key indicators of professionals innocently, unwittingly, wilfully blind and knowingly facilitating financial transactions with proceeds of crime. At the international level, Ron assessed the AML/CFT complex for effectiveness, globally and in New Zealand. He also completed the first independent assessment of the new global methodology for evaluating the effectiveness of AML/CFT regimes.
