

PRESENTERS

Ken Lord, Parry Field Lawyers, Christchurch

Ken joined Parry Field Lawyers in 1980 and became a partner that same year.

Ken's focus is on Property and Personal law including trusts and asset planning with strong interests in issues relating to the charitable sector, assisting the elderly and charitable trusts. He is also a Notary Public and one of the authors of the LexisNexis publication Law of Trusts, having written and reviewed the chapter devoted to charity law, as well as chapters in the LexisNexis publication The Law and Practice of Charities in New Zealand. Ken has acted for many charities and has been a trustee on many charities over the years so has a great deal of practical experience to share.

Steven Moe, Parry Field Lawyers, Christchurch

Steven started his career in Wellington at a national firm before spending 11 years overseas at an international firm in Tokyo, London and Sydney. Since returning to New Zealand and joining Parry Field Lawyers three years ago, he has worked extensively in the not for profit and charity law area. Steven has an interest in the intersection of charity and business and wrote Social Enterprises in New Zealand: A Legal Handbook last year. He hosts the seeds podcast interviewing charities, social enterprises and others about their journeys.

The statements and conclusions contained in this booklet are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This booklet has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course. It is not intended to be a comprehensive statement of the law or practice, and should not be relied upon as such. If advice on the law is required, it should be sought on a formal, professional basis.
