

PRESENTERS

Jenny Cooper QC, Shortland Chambers, Auckland

Jenny's practice covers a broad range of civil and commercial litigation including company and securities law, fair trading and consumer finance law, competition law, and insolvency. Prior to joining Shortland Chambers in 2011, she was a litigation partner at Bell Gully. Jenny is a Council member of the New Zealand Bar Association and the Legal Research Foundation.

Victoria Heine, Thorndon Chambers, Wellington

Victoria joined Thorndon Chambers in 2018 following a period of 13 years at Chapman Tripp. Her time at Chapman Tripp included a period on the National Board as deputy chair and chair. Victoria's background is in general commercial litigation where she frequently advises on business-critical matters for corporates and crown agents. She is ranked by Chambers Legal for both litigation and public law.

The statements and conclusions contained in this booklet are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This booklet has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course. It is not intended to be a comprehensive statement of the law or practice, and should not be relied upon as such.
