

PRESENTERS

Jane Goodwin, Canterbury Initiative Advance Care Planning Facilitator, Christchurch Hospital

Jane, BN (1st Class Hons), MHealSc, is a registered nurse who has been in the role of Advance Care Planning (ACP) Facilitator in Waitaha/Canterbury since 2013. She has a strong involvement with ACP nationally: chairing the national ACP Steering Group; working as an L3 advanced communication trainer and L4 national advanced communication train-the-trainer with the ACP programme; and contracted to the Health Quality and Safety Commission (HQSC) as the National ACP Implementation Consultant. More recently Jane has been working with The HQSC to introduce the Serious Illness Conversation Guide (SICG) to Aotearoa.

Nick Laing, Duncan Cotterill, Nelson

Nick specialises in litigation and dispute resolution with a particular focus on the health sector. His areas of practice include insurance matters, health and safety, medico-legal matters, professional indemnity, commercial and business disputes. Nick's experience includes matters relating to health practitioner discipline and negligence claims (including the Coroner, Health and Disability Commissioner, Privacy Commissioner and Ombudsmen), duty of care, patient consent, privacy and treatment issues. He recently completed a Masters in Law specialising in health law. Nick regularly advises health providers, DHBs, and primary health organisations on a wide range of medico-legal matters, including in relation to Advance Care Planning.
