

PRESENTER

Mark von Dadelszen, Barrister, Hastings

Mark has been advising not-for-profit organisations, legal firms, and individuals throughout New Zealand, on issues involving societies and charities, for more than two decades (since May 2021 as a barrister). He was actively involved in shaping the new Incorporated Societies Act 2022. Mark wrote Law of Societies in New Zealand - Unincorporated, Incorporated and Charitable in 2000. The 4th Edition will be published later this year, and it will discuss Australian legislation similar to our new statute and Australian Court decisions in respect of statutes comparable to our new Act. Mark's knowledge and skills in the area of societies and charities are underpinned by decades of experience in the governance of, and advice to, a wide range of community and professional organisations, as well as experience in other areas of law relevant to societies and charities during his five-decade professional career.

The statements and conclusions contained in this book are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This book has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course. It is not intended to be a comprehensive statement of the law or practice, and should not be relied upon as such. If advice on the law is required, it should be sought on a formal, professional basis.
