

PRESENTERS

Shelley Hodge, Barrister & Solicitor, Auckland

Shelley was admitted to the Bar in 1985. She spent the first 26 years of her legal career at Russell McVeagh and Chapman Tripp, specialising in corporate, commercial and finance related matters. Since 2012 Shelley has practised on her own account, carrying on with the commercial focus but applying this to relationship property matters.

Gerard Molloy, Haigh Lyon, Auckland

Gerard has a broad range of experience in commercial, property and trust matters. He is often called upon to provide guidance and strategic advice from a commercial and property perspective in complex relationship property and trust litigation. Gerard regularly acts as instructing solicitor for senior legal counsel.

The statements and conclusions contained in this paper are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This booklet has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course. It is not intended to be a comprehensive statement of the law or practice, and should not be relied upon as such. If advice on the law is required, it should be sought on a formal, professional basis.
