

PRESENTERS

Thomas Gibbons, Partner, McCaw Lewis Chapman, Hamilton

Thomas specialises in commercial law and property development, regularly advising SMEs and other entities on business structures, share dealings, shareholder agreements (and disputes), securities issues, charities matters, and Companies Act compliance. He has co-authored texts on trust and property law, and written on commercial and property law topics for the NZ Law Journal, the Company & Securities Law Bulletin and the Waikato Law Review. His recent LLM studies have focused on strategy and governance.

Paul Hubbard, Partner, Anderson Lloyd, Dunedin

Paul is a partner in the commercial team at Anderson Lloyd in Dunedin and his practice includes a wide variety of small to large enterprises. He has a particular interest in the Companies Act and shareholder agreements and has experience in drafting equity sharing arrangements for businesses that involve two people to twenty plus parties. Paul has also acted in relation to the sale and purchase of a variety of assets, businesses, shares and/or mergers and acquisitions and has advised on several takeovers under the Takeovers Code.

The statements and conclusions contained in this booklet are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This booklet has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course. It is not intended to be a comprehensive statement of the law or practice, and should not be relied upon as such. If advice on the law is required, it should be sought on a formal, professional basis.
