

PRESENTERS

Vivienne Crawshaw, Barrister, Auckland

Vivienne has been in practice for over 20 years, most of which has been focused primarily on family law. She has presented to the Institute of Judicial Studies, at the IBA Conference, for Lexis Nexis and at ADLS and NZLS Family Law conferences. In 2006 Vivienne published a book for the general public entitled Untying the Knot – What You Need to Know in a Family Break-up. She has appeared as counsel in a number of relationship property and children's cases at first instance and at appellate level. Vivienne has been in practice as a barrister sole since 2008.

His Honour Judge Robert Murfitt, District Court, Christchurch

Judge Murfitt was in practice in Christchurch for 30 years specialising in family law and criminal law (and briefly in conveyancing). For eight years he was a barrister sole practising primarily in family law litigation. He was appointed to the Family Court Bench in New Plymouth in 2004 and was transferred back to a very different Christchurch in October 2010. Judge Murfitt has presented papers at NZLS conferences and was a presenter of the NZLS seminar Preparing and Presenting Evidence in the Family Court in 2005.

Acknowledgement

The presenters acknowledge the assistance of Sarah Ansell, Research Counsel in Christchurch.
