

PRESENTERS

Claire Ryan, Associate, Meredith Connell, Auckland

Claire is a crown prosecutor and astronomer from Auckland and has practised law for almost 25 years including 5 years in Australia. She has worked extensively in the areas of family law and child protection both in Australia and New Zealand. She appears regularly in the Youth, District and High Courts and is the team leader for the Youth and Family Court team in her firm. Claire prosecutes criminal jury trials and defended hearings and has dealt with many applications under the PPPR Act 1988, Health Act 1956, and Mental Health (Compulsory Assessment and Treatment) Act 1992. She has also regularly been involved in police training seminars in the greater Auckland region, Palmerston North and Porirua. Claire lectures in criminal law for the Diploma of Forensic Science at Auckland University and is a member of the Family Law Section of the NZLS.

Alayne Wills, Partner, East Brewster, Rotorua

Alayne has practiced in the family law area for 28 years and is a senior lawyer for the child. She has acted for children, parents and caregivers in Child Youth and Family Services Care and Protection proceedings over that period. Alayne has been involved in the presentation of family workshops for Te Hunga Roia Māori, conducted workshops for the Child Protection Studies Centre and co-presented a section “Identifying what is important to the child culturally” in the 1999 NZLS Advanced Counsel for the Child workshop. She is a regular faculty member of the NZLS Litigation Skills Programme.

The statements and conclusions contained in this booklet are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This booklet has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course. It is not intended to be a comprehensive statement of the law or practice, and should not be relied upon as such. If advice on the law is required, it should be sought on a formal, professional basis.
