

PRESENTERS

Bruce Patterson, Duncan Cotterill, Auckland

Bruce is based in Auckland and leads the commercial division of Duncan Cotterill's specialist trans-Tasman tax team, advising on a variety of issues including Australian business establishment, profit repatriation, efficient business structures, cross border GST issues and sales and acquisitions. Bruce is a strong advocate of exploiting closer economic relations with Australia and believes that the profession must be in a position to give relevant advice regarding this market. He has been an active seminar presenter for the NZLS covering topics such as: doing business in Australia, company constitutions, taxation and general business law.

Aaron Dearden, Duncan Cotterill, Sydney

Aaron is based in Sydney and has extensive experience in employment law and industrial relations issues in Australia. He regularly advises employers regarding their employment relations strategies in Australia including advice on managing trade unions, workplace disputation, implementing workplace change, compliance and discipline issues, contractor issues and the enforcement of restraints of trade. Aaron is an accomplished advocate, appearing on behalf of clients in courts and industrial tribunals in Australia. He is admitted as a legal practitioner of the Supreme Court of NSW and a barrister and solicitor in New Zealand.
