

Dealing with the Media

INTERVIEWS WITH THE MEDIA: LAWYERS' LEGAL AND ETHICAL DUTIES

Introduction	1
The ethical rules	1
Contempt of court	3
What is it?	3
Special features	3
Contempt by publication: General considerations	4
The sub judice rule	5
Duration of the sub judice period	6
"Dormant" proceedings	7
Prejudice to a fair trial	7
The nature of the statements	8
Prejudging the issue	8
Contentious facts	8
Publication of photographs	8
Character and convictions	9
Improper reports of court proceedings	9
Sensational coverage	9
Influencing a litigant	10
The circumstances of publication	11
Who, if anyone, is likely to be influenced?	11
Jury	11
Judicial officers	12
Public interest	12
Strict liability	13
Scandalising the court	14
Interviewing jurors	14
Suppression orders	15
Right to clear court	15
Right to prohibit publication	16
Automatic suppression of name	16
Discretionary suppression of name	16
Relationship of statutory provisions with inherent jurisdiction	17
Complaints procedures	18
COMBATING, COAXING AND COPING WITH THE MEDIA: A GUIDE FOR CRIMINAL LAWYERS
Crime and the news media - symbiotic or parasitic?	21
Why crime news matters	21
Why the media matters to criminal lawyers	23

Current media attitude	23
Media trials	24
Contemporary trends	25
Changed news values	25
The rise and rise of image bites	26
Recycled film	27
Changing nature of relationships	28
Legal language and journalese – a case of bi-polar extremes?	29
News language	29
Judicial language	29
Pointers on language and speaking to the press	30
Understanding the reverberation effect	31
The reverberation effect in the news process cycle	31
Complaining to, and about, the media	32
Relevant rules	32
The Press Council	32
The Broadcasting Standards Authority ("BSA")	32
Developing media strategies	33
A client-centred strategy	33
Media strategies for criminal lawyers	33
Choosing media targets	34
MEDIA IN THE COURTROOM AND TELEVISED TRIALS
Introduction	35
The rules	36
An introduction	36
Inside the courtroom	37
Requests for coverage (r B3)	37
Protection for witnesses / priorities (rr B6 and B7)	38
Other protections	39
Expanded media coverage and practice – its influence on lawyers	39
Outside the courthouse	40
Chambers' hearings and the media	41
What is the status of these hearings?	42
APPENDIX 1: THE BROADCASTING STANDARDS AUTHORITY ON "DOOR-STEPPING"	45
APPENDIX 2: THE PRESS COUNCIL'S STATEMENT OF PRINCIPLES	47
APPENDIX 3: RADIO CODE OF BROADCASTING PRACTICE	49
Preamble	49
Grounds for a formal complaint	50
The principles	50
APPENDIX 4: FREE-TO-AIR TELEVISION PROGRAMME STANDARDS	53
Codes of Broadcasting Practice	53

Free-to-Air Television Programme	53
Standards	53
Television programme classifications	53
General - G	53
Parental Guidance Recommended - PGR	53
Adults Only - AO	53
General programme standards	54
All programmes (including promos)	54
News, current affairs and documentaries	55
Programme trailers and promotions	56
Portrayal of violence	56
All programmes (including promos)	56
News, current affairs and documentaries	57
Sports programmes	58
Protection of children	58
Promotion of liquor	58
Advertising	59
Election programmes/advertisements	59
Privacy principles	59
Relevant privacy principles	60
APPENDIX 5: PILOT PROJECTS FOR MEDIA IN COURTS	63
Pilot rules	63
Rules regulating coverage of court proceedings by radio	63
Rules regulating coverage of court proceedings by still photography	65
Rules regulating coverage by the electronic media of court proceedings	67
Explanatory comment	68
Amendment to Rule B6	70
REFERENCES
(Judy McGregor's paper)	72