

PRESENTERS

Dr Gerard Curry, Russell McVeagh, Auckland

Gerard has practised as a litigator and dealt with fiduciary duties for 30 years. He frequently leads before the full hierarchy of NZ Courts and Tribunals. He has been in a quintessential fiduciary relationship - a partnership - since 1976. He sits in his firm's ethics committee and frequently advises clients on fiduciary issues.

Peter Whiteside, Wynn Williams and Co, Christchurch

Peter Whiteside is the Senior Partner in the Christchurch firm of Wynn Williams & Co. He has extensive civil litigation experience. Of his four appearances in the Privy Council and Supreme Court, two involve leading cases in the field of fiduciary obligations Clark Boyce v Mouat [1993] 3 NZLR 641 (solicitor's fiduciary obligation) and Chirnside v Fay [2006] NZSC 68 (fiduciary obligations in an evolving joint venture).

The statements and conclusions contained in this booklet are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This booklet has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course. It is not intended to be a comprehensive statement of the law or practice, and should not be relied upon as such. If advice on the law is required, it should be sought on a formal, professional basis.

CONTENTS

|                                                                                                        |           |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|
| 1. INTRODUCTION .....                                                                           | 1  |
| Terminology .....                                                                                      | 2         |
| 2. WHAT CONSTITUTES A FIDUCIARY RELATIONSHIP?.....                                              | 3  |
| Underlying characteristics of fiduciary law .....                                               | 3         |
| Relationship with other areas of law .....                                                      | 4         |
| Relationship with professional ethics .....                                                     | 4         |
| Who are fiduciaries?.....                                                                              | 4         |
| Inherently fiduciary relationships .....                                                        | 5         |
| Particular relationships that may give rise to fiduciary obligations in the circumstances ..... | 5         |
| What obligations do fiduciaries owe and to whom? .....                                                 | 7         |
| The two major objects of loyalty .....                                                          | 8         |
| Right use of position .....                                                                     | 9         |
| Duty of disclosure .....                                                                        | 10        |
| Fiduciary's breach of duty of care .....                                                        | 10        |
| Scope of the duties .....                                                                       | 11        |
| When will fiduciaries be in breach of their obligations? .....                                         | 12        |
| What are the consequences for breach? .....                                                            | 13        |
| The primary remedy - account of profits .....                                                   | 14        |
| What can fiduciaries do to protect themselves from liability for breach of fiduciary duty? .....       | 16        |
| Contract .....                                                                                  | 16        |
| Disclosure and informed consent .....                                                           | 16        |
| 3. FIDUCIARY OBLIGATIONS OF LAWYERS.....                                                        | 21 |
| Introduction .....                                                                                     | 21        |
| Obligation to avoid conflict.....                                                                      | 23        |
| Extent of obligation .....                                                                      | 25        |
| Can informed client consent to the conflict? .....                                              | 25        |
| Dealings with clients .....                                                                     | 26        |
| Borrowing from clients .....                                                                    | 28        |
| Lending to clients .....                                                                        | 28        |
| Investing in a client's business .....                                                          | 29        |
| Lawyer buying from or selling to a client .....                                                 | 29        |
| Conflicts between clients .....                                                                        | 29        |
| Consent .....                                                                                   | 34        |
| Concurrent conflicts in transactional work .....                                                | 35        |
| Concurrent conflicts in litigation .....                                                        | 36        |
| Lawyer acting against former clients .....                                                             | 37        |
| The duty of confidence.....                                                                            | 39        |
| Fiduciary obligation to account.....                                                                   | 41        |
| Remedies for breach of the duty of loyalty by a lawyer .....                                           | 41        |
| Remedies for breach of confidence .....                                                                | 42        |
| 4. PARTNERSHIP .....                                                                            | 45 |

|                                                                                     |           |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|
| Introduction .....                                                                  | 45        |
| What is a partnership? .....                                                        | 45        |
| What fiduciary duties do partners owe? .....                                        | 46        |
| Duty to render accounts – s 31 .....                                         | 46        |
| Accountability of partners – s 32 .....                                      | 47        |
| Duty not to compete with the firm – s 32 .....                               | 48        |
| Conflict of interest .....                                                   | 48        |
| Appraisals .....                                                                    | 49        |
| Fiduciary duties after dissolution .....                                            | 49        |
| Scope of duties .....                                                               | 50        |
| 5. FIDUCIARY OBLIGATIONS OWED BY A PARTY IN BUSINESS .....                   | 53 |
| Facts of the case .....                                                             | 53        |
| Decision of the High Court of New Zealand .....                              | 54        |
| Decision of the Court of Appeal .....                                        | 54        |
| Decision of the Supreme Court .....                                          | 55        |
| Consequences of the judgment for parties considering business venture with others . | 57        |
| Quantum assessment by the Supreme Court .....                                       | 58        |
| APPENDIX 1 .....                                                             | 61 |
| SCHEDULE .....                                                                      | 61        |
| Lawyers and Conveyancers Act 2006 .....                                      | 61        |
| APPENDIX 2 .....                                                             | 67 |
| Fact scenario: Fiduciary obligations of lawyers.....                                | 67        |
| Questions .....                                                              | 68        |
| APPENDIX 3 .....                                                             | 71 |
| Fact Scenario: Partnership.....                                                     | 71        |