

PRESENTERS

Sue Brown, Head of Primary Regulatory Operations, Financial Markets Authority, Wellington

Sue is a senior lawyer with a strong background in financial markets, products and services in New Zealand, Australia and the UK. She was a partner of DLA Phillips Fox until 2010. As Head of Primary Regulatory Operations with the Financial Markets Authority, her role is to develop and lead FMA's regulatory strategies and activities relating to the primary and retail financial markets.

Simone Robbers, Manager Regulatory Policy, Financial Markets Authority, Wellington

Simone is a senior lawyer with a background in the financial services industry. Ms Robbers has held various senior legal, risk and compliance roles in financial services companies both in New Zealand and in Edinburgh. Prior to that she worked in private practice in New Zealand as a commercial lawyer. Ms Robbers' current role is to lead the Regulatory policy team at FMA in the provision of legal and policy support for FMA's work programme.

The statements and conclusions contained in this booklet are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society.
