

PRESENTER

Sally Fitzgerald, Russell McVeagh, Auckland

Sally is an experienced litigator, who has practised for over 20 years in major law firms in New Zealand, Australia and the United Kingdom. She is ranked as a leading lawyer in dispute resolution by both Chambers Asia Pacific and the Legal 500. Sally specialises in complex commercial disputes, regulatory investigations, and tax litigation. Sally regularly advises on Fair Trading Act matters, and was counsel for Cavalier Bremworth in the High Court and Court of Appeal, in recent proceedings brought by Godfrey Hirst. The Court of Appeal's judgment is now a leading decision on the Fair Trading Act's application to advertising.

CONTENTS

FAIR TRADING ACT / UNFAIR CONTRACT TERMS .....	1
INTRODUCTION .....	1
THE CONDUIT DEFENCE.....	1
Formulation of the “defence” .....	1
Review of case law .....	3
UNSUBSTANTIATED REPRESENTATIONS .....	9
UNFAIR CONTRACT TERMS.....	11
Background .....	11
Legislation overview .....	12
The Three requirements in New Zealand .....	15
Transparency and the contract as a whole .....	17
Enforcement in practice/role of Commerce Commission .....	18
Effect of a term being declared unfair .....	19