

PRESENTERS

Jonathan Salter, Simpson Grierson, Wellington

Jonathan leads the Local Government and Environment Group in the Wellington office of Simpson Grierson. He is legal adviser to numerous city, district and regional councils and Local Government New Zealand. Jonathan has been a specialist adviser to local authorities since 1984 when he joined the Municipal Association, moving to private practice in 1987. He has been closely involved with all recent local government reforms. Jonathan is principal author of Brookers' Guide to the Local Government Act 2002 and contributing author for Thomson Brookers' Local Government Law in New Zealand.

Denis Sheard, Waitakere City Council, Auckland

Denis is the General Counsel for the Waitakere City Council. In that role, since 2003, he has led one of the larger inhouse legal teams in local government in New Zealand. Prior to the Denis had over 30 years experience in private practice in Christchurch, latterly as a partner in Buddle Findlay, providing legal advice to a number of South Island territorial authorities.

The statements and conclusions contained in this booklet are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This booklet has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course. It is not intended to be a comprehensive statement of the law or practice, and should not be relied upon as such. If advice on the law is required, it should be sought on a formal, professional basis.
