

PRESENTERS

Robbie Muir, Registrar-General of LINZ, Wellington

Robbie has extensive experience working as a solicitor in the area of land title registration and was appointed to the position of Registrar-General of Land for New Zealand in 2000. He has been heavily involved in the development of New Zealand's Landonline system and related legislative reforms to enable electronic registration. Robbie has been a regular contributor to various property law publications and has presented at several NZLS CLE seminars on conveyancing matters over the years, including a national seminar series on electronic registration.

The statements and conclusions contained in this booklet are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This booklet has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course. It is not intended to be a comprehensive statement of the law or practice, and should not be relied upon as such. If advice on the law is required, it should be sought on a formal, professional basis.
