

Casey Plunket, Partner, Chapman Tripp

Casey has extensive experience in the New Zealand tax treatment of corporate acquisitions, mergers and restructurings, both domestic and cross-border. He currently advises a number of New Zealand and Australian private equity funds on the New Zealand tax treatment of their domestic and cross border-transactions. Casey has been involved in the design and drafting of the tax rules applying to both portfolio listed entities and limited partnerships. He lectures part time at the University of Auckland and University of Sydney.

Nick Wells, Partner, Chapman Tripp

Nick Wells has been a partner in Chapman Tripp's commercial/corporate team since March 2003. He was the independent expert to the Commerce Select Committee in relation to the Limited Partnerships Bill. Nick was previously a partner in Gilbert + Tobin's Sydney office. Nick advises a number of clients, including venture capitalists and private equity funds in particular, on governance and structuring issues. He chairs the firm's pro bono committee, lectures on Limited Partnerships at the University of Auckland, is chairman of Magellan Capital and also assists a number of community organisations. Nick completed his MBA with honours at the IMD in Lausanne, Switzerland in 2005.
