

New Legislative Guidelines

INTRODUCTION	Richard Clarke	1
LAC GUIDELINES		2
Checklist		2
TRANSLATING POLICY INTO LEGISLATION	Richard Clarke & Phillipa Smith	7
What the Guidelines cover and why		7
Compliance costs		8
How to get maximum benefit from the Guidelines		8
What non-legislative means are available for achieving policy objectives; and how to decide whether legislation is needed		9
No government intervention		9
Increasing enforcement		9
Information and education campaigns		9
Economic instruments		10
Voluntary standards / codes of practice		10
Self-regulation and Co-regulation		10
Who should be involved in formulating legislation?		10
Consultation		11
FUNDAMENTAL LEGAL PRINCIPLES: CONSISTENCY WITH BASIC PRINCIPLES AND EXISTING LAW	Prof Matthew Palmer	13
LEGISLATION DRAFTING – SOME PRACTICAL ISSUES	George Tanner	23
Introduction		23
Departmental solicitor and drafter – respective roles and responsibilities		24
Legislative design – the importance of structure and other key issues		25
Interpretation Act 1999 – implications for commencement, transitional, and savings provisions		26
Transitional and savings provisions		29
Drafting techniques – challenges in changing approaches		29
LEGISLATION DRAFTING – SOME PRACTICAL ISSUES: PRIMARY, SECONDARY AND TERTIARY LEGISLATION	Wendell Slatter	33
Appendix 1 – Parliamentary Counsel Drafting Manual, Version 4, November 2000		35
Appendix 2 – Animal Products Act 1999		85
ENFORCEMENT AND REMEDIES	The Hon Justice Robertson	89