

PRESENTERS

Judge Vivienne Ullrich QC, Wellington

Vivienne has specialised in family law for the past 15 years, and has been interested in the policy issues surrounding relationship property for even longer. She is one of the authors of Trapski's Family Law, writing on matrimonial and de facto property (as it then was).

Annette Gray, Buchanan Gray, Wellington

Annette is a Family Court Practitioner with 25 years' experience. She has a broad Family Court experience in all aspects of family law but has a particular interest in rights based law. Annette has been counsel for subject person for many years and is currently a District Inspector of Mental Health. She has an interest in inter-country adoptions and is also lawyer for child and acts for parties in family court matters. Annette spent a year doing volunteer service abroad acting as legal counsel for the Family Support Centre, an NGO, providing education and legal support mainly to women in domestic violence and child custody cases.

The statements and conclusions contained in this booklet are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This booklet has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course. It is not intended to be a comprehensive statement of the law or practice, and should not be relied upon as such. If advice on the law is required, it should be sought on a formal, professional basis.
