

The New Property Relationships Legislation

1. THE BIG PICTURE (Vivienne Ullrich QC)	1
Main themes	1
Existing principles that still apply	2
Summary	4
2. WHAT IS "DE FACTO"? (Geoff Harrison)	5
Introduction	5
Definition of "de facto relationship"	5
Key points	6
3. THE MAIN CHANGES (Vivienne Ullrich QC &amp; Mary O'Dwyer)	7
A. Relationships of short duration	7
Introduction	7
Meaning of relationship of short duration	7
New meaning of "marriage of short duration"	8
Discretion to extend the three year period	9
Division of property in a marriage of short duration	10
Treatment of domestic property assets	11
Other relationship property	11
De facto relationships of short duration	12
Meaning of "child of the relationship"	13
Substantial contribution	13
Serious injustice	14
Orders to address economic disparity	14
Death	14
B. Relationship property – definition	15
Chattels	15
Superannuation and life insurance	17
Common use or benefit	17
Interest in a Trust	17
C. Debt	18
D. Separate property	19
Introduction	19
Section 9A - increase in value, income or gains	20
Section 17A - decrease in value	22
E. Economic disparity	22
F. Section 16 – adjustment when each partner owned at home at date relationship began	23
G. Compensation for contributions made after separation	24
H. Postponement of vesting	24

I. Trusts and qualifying companies	25
Compensation where property is transferred to a trust	25
Compensation for property transferred to companies	27
J. Transitional provisions	28
K. Division of Relationship Property	29
Presumption of equal sharing of all relationship property	29
Statutory provisions	30
Departure from equal sharing	30
4. AGREEMENTS – CONTRACTING OUT UNDER THE NEW REGIME (Geoff Harrison)	35
Introduction	35
Recent judicial trends	35
The substantive changes to the property sharing regime	37
The Act – the two main changes to the current contracting out regime	38
Formalities – transitional provisions and existing de facto property sharing agreements	40
Contracting out agreements – transitional provisions: model forms of agreement	41
Introduction and warning	41
Basics	41
Transitional provisions – generally	41
Interpretation of existing agreements	43
Model precedents provided	43
Section 9 (A) 15(A) and s 17 claims	44
Fiction as strange as fact – a scenario for your consideration	56
5. SPOUSAL MAINTENANCE (Mary O’Dwyer)	59
Application to de facto relationships	59
Short duration de facto relationships	59
Maintenance for unmarried parent	60
Maintenance of married couples and de facto partners	60
The ability to become self-supporting	61
The likely earning capacity of each party	61
Responsibilities for the care of children	62
Standard of living whilst living together	63
Responsibility for own needs – duration	64
Assessment of quantum	64
Jurisdiction to make orders	65
6. THE EFFECTS OF THE LEGISLATION ON ASSET PLANNING – WILLS, TRUSTS, COMPANIES, CONTRACTING OUT AGREEMENTS (Kerry Ayers)	67
The reason for asset planning	67
Risks which pre-date the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 and which continue	67

New risks created by the Property (Relationships) Amendment Act 2001 and how to deal with them	68
Effect on new and existing wills	68
Effect of the new legislation on existing trusts and new trusts	70
The effect of the new Act on existing companies and new companies	72
Using agreements under s 21 of the Act for asset planning purposes	74
Asset planning and conflicts of interest	75
Conclusion	77
Will drafting check list	78
7. DEATH (Mary O’Dwyer and Kerry Ayers)	86
Claims after death	86
Introduction	86
Procedure governing the election	86
Extension of time	87
Making the election	87
How the choice is to be made	87
Setting aside the choice	88
Restrictions on distribution of the estate	89
Effect of electing to claim	89
Clauses that benefit a surviving spouse or partner	89
Competing claims – priority of entitlement	91
Family protection amendments	91
Intestacy	92
Conclusion	93
Effect of new Act on estate administration procedures	93
Appendix 1 - Summary analysis of effect of Property Relationships Act 1976 on estate administration	95
APPENDIX 2 - A CHECKLIST OF PRACTICAL STEPS FOR ADVISING SURVIVING SPOUSE/PARTNER	96