

Recent Developments in School Law

1. INTRODUCTION	1
Aims of seminar	1
The sources of law about education	1
Guiding principles in education law	2
Guiding principle 1: Education is a public trust and those responsible for its administration have "trust-like" responsibilities	2
Guiding principle number 2: Education is the legal right of students	3
Guiding principle number 3: Don't rush: there is almost always time to make a careful and informed decision	4
The 1999 list of fundamental principles	4
1. Students have the legal right to an education	4
2. Students have the obligation to be enrolled at a school	4
3. A school must have certain powers to discharge their responsibility	4
4. The responsibility is to all students	5
5. School power must be exercised for the purposes for which it is granted	5
6. Student rights are not always the same as adult rights	5
7. Boards of trustees and principals run state schools, not the court	6
8. Courts must ensure that the rights of students and parents are properly observed	7
Reconciling principles 7 and 8	7
9. Not everything that is lawful is a good idea	7
