

PRESENTERS

John McCay

A commercial partner, John has 13 years' experience specialising in the areas of corporate and commercial law, mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, information technology, intellectual property and securities law. John is a member of the Energy Law Association Executive Committee and the Stock Exchange and Market Regulations Task Force.

Paul O'Regan

Paul has been a corporate partner in Chapman Tripp for over 20 years with a particular emphasis on utility and energy-related transactions and clients. He has acted on the formation of numerous joint ventures, both incorporated and unincorporated, and has also specialised in mergers and acquisitions and securities law.

CONTENTS

PART A: INTRODUCTION – SETTING THE SCENE	1
Introduction	1
The Vujnovich cases	1
Analysis	3
Closely held companies: different companies, different needs	4
Focus of the Companies Act 1993	5
Separation of ownership and control	5
Majority rule	6
Matters of particular importance to closely held companies	6
Making the Companies Act 1993 work for closely held companies	6
The constitution	7
Presumptive sections	8
Optional sections	8
Mandatory sections	8
Substantive or procedural approach to varying requirements of presumptive and optional sections	9
Unanimous consent under s 107	9
Powers conferred by The Act and not otherwise restricted	10
Unanimous written consent	10
Shareholders' agreement	10
Status of shareholders' agreements	10
Why have a shareholders' agreement?	11
A one stop shop?	12
When things go wrong	12
Summary	12
PART B: ANALYSING THE SHAREHOLDER STRUCTURE	15
Taking instructions	15
Case study – Stefan squeeze out	15
Analysis	16
Closely held companies	16
Conflicts of interest	17
Analysis of interests	17
Umbrella agreement	18
Section 131 – directors' duties	18
Disclosure of interest	19
Relationship between the shareholders' agreement and the constitution	19
Which prevails?	19
Amendments	20
PART C: A TYPICAL SHAREHOLDERS' AGREEMENT	21
Parties	21
Shareholder special purpose vehicles	21
Groups of shares	22
Calls on shares	22
Quasi-equity	22
Primary objective	22
Dividend policy	23

Composition of the board	23
Voting rights	23
Quorum	23
Chairman	24
Management	24
Management contracts	24
Citic v FCF	24
Business plan	25
Budgets	25
Changes to budget	25
Governance	25
Shareholders/board	26
Unanimous shareholder approval	26
Unanimous director approval	26
Contracts for goods and services	27
Ordinary course of business	27
Contracts with shareholders	27
Transfer of shares	28
Unconstrained transfers	28
Transfer subject to consent	28
Pre-emptive rights	28
Synopsis of provisions	29
Problems	29
Assignment	30
Dispute resolution	30
Deadlock	31
Default	31
Shareholders' undertakings	31
No partnership clause	32
PART D: WHEN THINGS CHANGE: BRINGING IN NEW SHAREHOLDERS	33
New considerations	33
New investment	33
Debt finance	34
Advantages	34
Disadvantages	34
Equity finance	34
Advantages	35
Disadvantages	35
Structuring an equity investment	36
Pricing	36
Investor objectives	36
Existing shareholder objectives	36
New investors and the shareholders' agreement	36
Exit strategies	37
Restrictions on share transfer	38
Right of first refusal	38
Tag along rights	38
Drag along rights	38
Buy – sell agreements	39

Options	39
Forced dissolution	39
Summary	40
PART E: PRACTICAL STEPS	41
Precedents	Error! Bookmark not defined.
Checklist	42
Fees	42
Recent innovations	42
Equifee company criteria	43
APPENDIX: CHECKLIST FOR SHAREHOLDERS' AGREEMENT	45