

PRESENTERS

Grant Pearson, Duncan Cotterill, Wellington

Grant is a partner in Duncan Cotterill, advising and representing clients on all aspects of New Zealand tax in the firm's trans-Tasman practice. He has been a tax specialist since the mid-1980s and his wide-ranging background in this area has included four appearances in the Privy Council. Grant has a particular interest in the increasingly important role of tax in general legal practice.

Stephen Tomlinson, Tomlinson Paull, Christchurch

Stephen is a partner of Tomlinson Paull. He has lectured in taxation, finance and business law at the University of Canterbury and is a well-known presenter of taxation and trust seminars. Stephen advises law firms, accounting firms and property developers on a wide range of GST and income tax issues. He is currently a co-convenor of the New Zealand Law Society's taxation committee.

The statements and conclusions contained in this booklet are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This booklet has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course. It is not intended to be a comprehensive statement of the law or practice, and should not be relied upon as such. If advice on the law is required, it should be sought on a formal, professional basis.
