

PRESENTER

Catherine Atchison, Martelli McKegg, Auckland

Catherine is a partner in the Estates and Trust Administration department and has wide experience in wills, trusts and estate, as well as the increasing elder law practice arising from her private client base. She is an executive member of STEP and has presented papers for NZLS CLE and ADLS on trusts, estates and elder law issues.

CONTENTS

THE PROTECTION OF PERSONAL AND PROPERTY RIGHTS ACT 1988 AND ENDURING POWER OF ATTORNEY .....	1
REVOCATION OF ENDURING POWERS OF ATTORNEY .....	2
CAPACITY .....	3
SUSPENDING AN ATTORNEY’S AUTHORITY .....	4
Advising on revocation .....	5
Signs to look for if capacity is questionable .....	6
INVOKING THE POWERS OF ATTORNEY .....	8
Invoking a property EPA .....	8
Attorney’s role on invoking a property EPA .....	9
Personal care and welfare EPA .....	9
Attorneys role on invoking a personal care and welfare EPA .....	10
THE LAWYERS ROLE – WHO TO ACT FOR .....	12
The scenario .....	12
The Act .....	12
PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT .....	13
Allegations of unlawfulness against the attorney .....	13
Summary .....	15
USE OF OVERSEAS POWERS OF ATTORNEY IN NEW ZEALAND .....	15
ENDURING POWERS OF ATTORNEY .....	16
Use of New Zealand EPAs overseas .....	17
EPAs in a global society .....	17
USE AND ABUSE OF EPAS.....	18
What is abuse? .....	18
Financial abuse .....	19
Neglect .....	19
Psychological/emotional abuse .....	19
Institutional abuse .....	20
Self neglect .....	20
CONCLUSION .....	20