

PRESENTERS

David Grinlinton, Associate Professor School of Law Auckland University

David has taught at the University of Auckland Faculty of law, since 1989. His teaching and research interests include land law, commercial leases, and energy and natural resources law. He previously worked in legal practice for a number of years, primarily in the areas of commercial property, natural resource development and leasing matters. David co-presented the NZLS CLE Ltd Commercial Leases seminar series in 2000, 2003 and 2008.

Peter Nolan, Solicitor, Auckland

Peter has been in sole practice since 2005 and was previously a partner in Kensington Swan (1986 to 2005) and at Brandon Brookfield (now Brookfields) from 1981 to 1986. He specialises in property work, including sales, acquisitions, developments, joint ventures, construction, subdivisions, leasing and property finance. He has extensive experience in mortgage recovery work, acting for banks and other lending institutions. Peter was a principal drafter of the ADLS 8th Edition of the Agreement for Sale and Purchase of Real Estate and of its subsequent revisions, as well as the ADLS Agreements for the Sale and Purchase of Real Estate by Auction and Tender. He was a member of the NZLS working party that prepared submissions on the Property Law Bill before it was enacted as the Property Law Act 2007.

The statements and conclusions contained in this booklet are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This booklet has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course. It is not intended to be a comprehensive statement of the law or practice, and should not be relied upon as such. If advice on the law is required, it should be sought on a formal, professional basis.
