

JWS – Day 3

The Junior White Sox had a strong win over Argentina this morning 5-0 after seven.

Pitcher Courtney Gettins was the star of the show, shutting down Argentina's hitters for the full seven innings. She also contributed to the scoreline, batting in 2 Kiwi runs with an RBI single.

Gettins did well on the mound, getting ahead early with 18 first pitch strikes and clocking up a total of eight strikeouts. Canterbury native, Mikayla Werahiko, continues to top the quality at-bats for New Zealand.

Top hitters of the game were Makayla Mave and Emma Houkamau with two hits each.

The Junior White Sox will play two games tomorrow and need to win one to move through to the playoffs.
